

Alaska Smart Communities Forum

Tuesday Feb 7, 2016, 8:00 am-1pm

Mat-Su School District Administration Building
501 N. Gulkana St., Palmer, Alaska, 99645

Continental Breakfast and Lunch provided by Matsu Borough

The Alaska Smart Communities Forum is a starting point for Alaska public and private organizations to learn how we are using, sharing, and providing information that can benefit more citizens in more ways.

Agenda:

- 8:00am            Coffee and Continental Breakfast
- 8:30am            Introductions & Charter Discussion
- Introductions and Value of the Forum – Eric Wyatt
  - Forum Charter – Vision, Goals, Objectives, Guidelines – Doug Miller
- 9:15am            Project Updates
- 211 App Design – Matt Rykaczewski
  - Citizen Problem Reporter App – Kenny Kleewein
  - Transportation Portal – Joe Quicquel
- 9:45am            Break
- 10:00am           Centennial, CO – Scott Blumenreich, Chief Innovation & Technology Officer
- Online Services/Portal; City Response Center
  - Innovation Team (i-team); Bloomberg Philanthropies Innovation Grant
  - Fiber Initiative; Public-Private Partnership
- 10:45am           Portal Projects – Purpose, Content, How to Use
- Matsu Open Data Portal (Beta) – Kenny Kleewein
  - Alaska Geospatial Council / Portal – Anne Johnson
  - Municipality of Anchorage Open Data Portal – Brendan Babb
- 11:30am           Lunch Discussion – Common Portal Vision and Plan – Doug Miller
- Common Portal, Shared Service?
  - Format, Authoritative Sources, Overlap?
  - Community Access?
- 12:45pm           Next Steps & Adjourn