Alaska
Smart Community Forum

April 7, 2016

Objectives

- Learn about Smart Communities and how they are evolving and benefiting citizens.

- Discuss ideas about how we can work together as a group.

Agenda

- 9:00 AM   Welcome and Introductions
  - Eric Wyatt Mat-Su Borough IT Director/CIO
- 9:30 AM   What Makes a Smart Community?
                 Why and How to Form A Coalition of IT Leaders?
  - Amos Auringer, Gartner, In
- 10:45   Networking Break
- 11:00 AM   The Roles of Technology in Smart Communities
  - Facilitator: Mike Brown, Mat-Su School District,
                  Executive Director of O&M
- 11:30 AM   Building Public Private Partnerships
  - Panel Discussion:
    - Steve Colligan, MSB Assemblyman, e-Terra
    - Brad Spees, GCI, VP of Wholesale & Government Markets
    - TekMate
    - MTA
- 12:30 Remarks by Mat-Su Assistant Borough Manager
  - Mr. George Hays

Agenda

- 12:45   Lunch
- 2:00 Pm Smart Community Examples and key elements For Success
  - Cisco: Connected Vehicles & Citizens
    Walter Harmon
  - ESRI: GIS and Use-Cases
    Terri Morganson
- 3:15 What is Everyone Working on?
  - Facilitator: Lauren Driscoll. Mat-Su Long Range Planning Manager
- 3:50 Break
- 4:00 Creating a Smart Community Group: How Can We Help Each Other?
  - Facilitator: Doug Miller, Alaska IT Group
- 4:30 Closing Remarks
  - Eric Wyatt, Mat-Su Borough It Director/CIO

Welcome – Why Are We Here?

- We all have systems, services, and projects that fit the description of Smart Community, Smart City, Smart Government
- ESRI Public Sector CIO Conference in 2015 – Smart Community
  - Nicely packages these efforts and offers a road map and assistance
- I serve my Borough, my Community, and my citizens best by building the foundation that supports Smart Community
- I want to share with you
- I hope you will share with me

Introductions

- Speakers

- Each introduce yourself

Room Layout – Admin

- Tree of Low-Hanging-Fruit
- House Building with Foundation

- Web/Mobile Applications and Open Data sharing and sign-up sheets

- ESRI provided visual aides

- Can we share the guest list and contact information?

Let's begin !